Jeg kan også foreslå noen fine og trendy steder til middag. Alle sentrale og nær Tower London hotell.

Brasserie Blanc Tower of London

On the west side of Trinity Square, close to Tower Hill tube station, this brasserie lies opposite the Tower of London, one of the city's most popular landmarks. The restaurant offers a fabulous seasonally changing à la carte menu alongside delicious daily specials. Owned by the infamous Raymond Blanc, this restaurant chain guarantees a high quality of food and wine.

Bread Street Kitchen

In the heart of the City and shadow of St Paul's Cathedral, this is the place for people across all hours. Open for breakfast meetings, after work drinks or group dinners, Bread Street Kitchen is a bustling, large and breathtaking space. A stunning mix of vintage and modern brought together by an ever-changing menu.

The Happenstance

Immerse yourself in a world of curiously good times & happy coincidences at the Happenstance. It's sure to be a welcome addition to your little black book with floor-to-ceiling windows frame views of London's most iconic landmark, St Paul's, whilst the sophisticated interior encompasses a striking bar & restaurant, bountiful deli, mixology table & florist.
